

a call for art to members of works

(and those who join or renew right away!)

dear member and friend of works:

you are invited to participate in the 2009 members' exhibition at works/san josé. your community art and performance center. the exhibition, entitled all for one!..., will open october 2 and run to november 13 with receptions on first fridays, october 2 and november 6 from 7pm until late.

each member of works is invited to place one work of art into the exhibition, your single piece must be ready-to-hang (framed/mounted with all hanging hardware). space is limited for this popular exhibition and we must limit wall pieces to 24 inches in width by 24 inches in height; and sculptural pieces to 24 inches in width and depth. please include instructions for pedestals, suspensions, or any other special display requests. please also provide a resume and artist statement.

all work must be hand-delivered to 451 south 1st street on thursday, september 24, noon to 7pm, or friday or saturday, september 25 or 26, noon to 4pm. no work can be accepted after 4pm september 26. the exhibition entry form and exhibition agreement can be completed when you deliver your work or can be downloaded at workssanjose.org. volunteers are needed for installation and receptions—please sign up to help when you deliver your work!

you can attend the works member meeting and bring your artwork: saturday, september 26 at 2pm!

performance artists who would like to present a work during one of the receptions must provide a description by 4pm september 26 to reserve space.

work will be available for pick-up on saturday, november 14 from noon to 4pm.

join or renew your membership now to take part in the south bay's most inclusive and eclectic salon style exhibition. basic membership is just $35 per year, with dual membership at just $60—or support works with an activist membership if you can.

if you have questions, please email gallery@workssanjose.org.

thank you for your participation!

sincerely, the board of directors, works/san josé
